

REALTORS ASSOCIATION OF JAMAICA

MEMBERSHIP DUES

Membership dues are charged annually as at January 1, however the Association prorates fees depending on the quarter that the license holder applies for membership. Membership dues are charged in both Jamaican AND American currencies and MUST be paid at the Bank of Nova Scotia (BNS) in the currency quoted.

Once payment is made then BOTH receipts must be submitted along with the duly completed and signed application form and other requisite documentation for processing.

Applications are processed within five (5) business days.
Kindly contact the Secretariat for further details.

All new members MUST attend the scheduled Orientation Session immediately following their acceptance into the RAJ or the next scheduled Orientation Session. Members who fail to attend the either of the two scheduled sessions after their acceptance into the RAJ will be penalized.

Orientation Sessions usually last no longer than five (5) hours and attendees are asked to bring along with them their electronic devices as the sessions will include hands on introduction to the Multiple Listing System (MLS).

At the end of each Orientation Session, new members will be inducted into the Association as this is the final stage of the Membership Approval process. Below are dates of all upcoming sessions.
